

catrax show

Catrax Show is a turnstile specially designed by Digicon to combine robustness, reliability, flexibility and ease of movement. Applicable to any environment, it is the ideal solution for large or medium-sized events.

digicon

The mobile base, the system of retractable wheels and its customization capabilities give Catrax Show true differential assets in the events market.

Catrax Show operating

Catrax Show ready for transportation

- Epoxy powder painted in black and detail tabs in the columns
- Bidirectional three-arm mechanism with safety drop-arm device
- Locking system using two electro-magnets
- Rotating system monitored by two optical sensors
- 5 digits electronic counter with battery power and independent control
- Steel top cover with 2x16 character big number display, acrylic holder to install a reader and pictograms for operation
- Key with secret for top cover opening
- Turn and release controller allows for integration with the client's access controller
- Full range power supply (90-240 VAC input)
- Lateral pictogram guidance
- Integrated base with metalon and aluminum sheet structure
- Two sets of wheels for moving the turnstile
- Connectors for quick connection at the base of the turnstile
- Two side doors with opening to the outside

Applications

OPTIONS

- MCA model control board - TCP / IP
- Support for readers
- Card collector

